<Recommended books for this month>

"Sudsy Mom's Washing Spree" (R.I.C. story chest) *Written and illustrated by Wakiko Sato *Translated by Sako Laughlin" R.I.C Publications 2005.10.

I would like to introduce picture books that have been loved and read by many Japanese children for a long time. This is a hilarious story about a mom who loves laundry and will wash everything. It is often read at story gatherings such as libraries where everyone gathers. The fun is conveyed to foreigners, and I am sure you can enjoy it, too. It comes with CD (The English version of the 1982 edition published by Fukuinkan Shoten)
